EXPERIENCE

BROWNING CINEMA, DEBARTOLO PERFORMING ARTS CENTER — Film Curator

University of Notre Dame | August 2025 – May 2026

- Curated films directly under the Cinema Program Director, researching archival collections and internet databases, such as IMDb, Studio System, Letterboxd, The Criterion Channel, and festival websites. Chose works with an emphasis on world cinema, challenging perspectives, and engaging questions of subjectivity and representation.
- Wrote film description and copy distributed to over 200 students ahead of screenings.
- Spoke and interviewed documentary filmmakers during screening Q&As.

DOMESTOCK — Founder & Festival Programmer

University of Notre Dame | February 2023 – May 2026

- Founded a music and arts festival to bring Notre Dame students and the broader South Bend community together across institutional and social lines, growing it into a 250+ attendee event across four annual iterations.
- Sourced, communicated with, and booked performers, including bands, DJs, poets, drag artists, and activists. Managed venue acquisition at LangLab, a community arts center; event logistics; performer compensation; advertising campaigns; and day-of production. Maintained working relationships with all partners.
- Cultivated a distinctive festival environment with a custom bar menu, collaborative art gallery, tabling area for organizations, and schedule fit for creative flow and audience experience.

LIU INSTITUTE FOR ASIA & ASIAN STUDIES — Student Coordinator

University of Notre Dame | August 2024 – May 2026

- Co-directed the inaugural cultural showcase of the Chinese Culture Society, managing script-writing, advertising, and programming logistics for an event that drew over 200 attendees.
- Hosted prominent visiting artists and speakers, such as Hyun Kyung Kim ahead of her campus film screening to facilitate her engagement with the Notre Dame community.

KELLOGG INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES — Scholars Program Researcher

University of Notre Dame | April 2024 – May 2026

- Served as research assistant to Professor Ernesto Verdeja, developing fluency in library databases, Zotero, Google Workspace, Microsoft Word, and data organization and analysis.
- Conducted research on political violence, mass atrocities, and genocide. Presented research at UCSD Summer Research Conference and Kroc Institute's Peace Conference.

CENTER FOR DECOLONIAL THOUGHT — Selected Cohort Member

Barcelona / Granada, Spain | June 2024 – July 2025

- Completed intensive study of decolonial epistemologies, cultural institutions, and knowledge production alongside scholars Ruthie Gilmore, Linda Alcoff, Ramón Grosfoguel, and Nelson Maldonado-Torres.
- Participated in Critical Muslim Studies courses at the Escuela de Estudios Árabes, engaging with academics, religious leaders, and activists across academic and public contexts.

SOLIDARITYND — Co-Chair

University of Notre Dame | September 2022 – May 2026

- Organized film screenings with discussions moderated by Olivier Morel and Alison Rice, and speaker events featuring artists, writers, politicians, and public intellectuals—including Noam Chomsky and Omar Haramy—to bring global perspectives into campus discourse.
- Invited into institutional dialogue with senior university leadership—the Provost, Vice President and Chief of Staff, and Vice President of Student Affairs—providing recommendations on stimulating Notre Dame’s diverse political culture.
- Co-founded The Irish Radical, a publication that introduced space for alternative political voices and critique. Oversaw calls for submissions, submission review, and release with occasional zine creation. Received strong support from students, faculty, and alumni.
